INTRODUCTION. Some anthropologists and social psychologists maintain that love is a cultural universal. They believe that at least one variety of love, romantic love, is likely to have appeared in all human groups at all times in human history (see Hatfield & Rapson 2002). As evidenced by ancient human artifacts, it is clear that love, in one form or another, has always been on people's minds.

Yesterday (May 24) was the feast day of St. Vincent of Lérins, a soldier who became a monk at the monastery in Lérins, and wrote his famous Commonitory in AD 434, three years after the third Ecumenical Council at Ephesus, and seventeen years before the Ecumenical Council of Chalcedon. Because Protestants generally accept both those councils, St. Vincent's Commonitory provides a window into ...

An expedition to the south established sovereignty over the old Chinese settlement in Tongking and over the Champa state of Lin-yi in central Nam Viet (present-day Vietnam). Several expeditions were sent to Taiwan, and relations with Japan were opened.
