This included Lent and Advent. Abstinence days simply meant not eating any meat or meat products. This was supposed to be followed every Friday. On days of fast and abstinence, Ash Wednesday and Good Friday, there were three meals allowed as per the fasting requirements but no meat could be eaten at the full meal.

Christian Fasting Practices - How to Fast

Traditions help families stay together. And churches, like good families, have traditions they keep. Baptism and the Lord's Supper—often referred to as the ordinances—are two such traditions. Healthy churches practice these for at least four good reasons. The commands to baptize and observe ...

Why Every Healthy Church Practices the Ordinances ...

A Christian will even eat and drink differently—all to the glory of God—choosing only “what is good.” If God says a thing is not fit to eat, He must have a good reason. He is not a harsh dictator, but a loving Father. All His counsel is for our good always. The Bible promises, “No good thing will He withhold from those who walk uprightly” (Psalm 84:11).
