The Prose Of The World

Characteristics "[A] prose poem is a poem written in prose. [N]ot unlike [the term] 'free verse,' the oxymoronic name ['prose poem'] captures the complex nature of a beast bred to challenge conventional assumptions about what poetry is and what it can do."

Regardless of a reader's belief whether 'Less is more' or 'Less is Less', the concept of minimalism is what it is - Less. That spark of minimalist literature is vibrant to this day almost everywhere we see. Ironic how something so vehemently (and unjustly) looked down upon in its early days, sews itself into the very fabric of culture.
